

MORTON Sweeps New York by 150,000.

TAMMANY BEATEN

Recorder Smythe Snowed Under by Prosecutor Goff.

"TIM" CAMPBELL IS LOST

The Populists Were Almost Completely Lost Sight Of.

REPUBLICANS CLAIM THE HOUSE

In Almost Every State Democrats Have Suffered Heavily.

WHAT LEADERS ARE SAYING

Ohio Gives an Unprecedented Large Republican Majority—Tom Johnson Beaten in the Cleveland District—Holloman Falls Through in Indiana by a squeak—Speaker Crisp Is Re-elected, but Many of the Familiar Faces Will Be Missing from the Next Congress—Springer, of Illinois, One of Them—A Complete and Graphic Story of How the Battle of the Ballots Was Fought Throughout the Union.

The result of the elections, besides the very heavy plurality of Mr. Morton for Governor of New York, estimated at from 125,000 to 150,000, indicate a general triumph for the Republican party in that State and in the North and Northwest. In Pennsylvania and Ohio the majorities are likely to be in excess of any record for recent years, and practically the solid delegation from both States will be Republican. Michigan's twelve Congressmen will also be of the same party, in Indiana Republican gains are noted, in Illinois the Democrats have met reverse, and even such a veteran as William M. Springer has met defeat. In Massachusetts, Connecticut, and New Jersey the Republicans have made gains.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

HILL'S WATERLOO

Morton's Plurality Estimated at About 150,000—The Rest of the State Tied.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Republicans have carried New York State by estimated pluralities ranging from 130,000 to 150,000. These figures represent the probable plurality of Levi P. Morton, Republican, for Governor, over David B. Hill, Democrat, based upon the vote of New York city and Brooklyn complete, and returns from more than one-half of the election districts above the Harlem river. The total vote for the two leading candidates is considerably in excess of that polled for Flower and Fassett for Governor in 1891, in addition to which is the vote cast this year for Everett F. Wheeler, Independent Democrat, which will exceed 30,000. The tremendous Republican sweep in the city and State, it is estimated, has elected twenty-three Republican Congressmen, a gain of eight over the present representation in Congress.

It was the expressed belief of those who were conducting the campaign for the Democrats in the State that disreputable majorities below the Harlem for the party would be offset by increased majorities above that river's bank for the Democracy. The most sanguine expected that the Democratic party, with Senator Hill at its head, would show recuperation from the vote given for Maynard in 1893. In place of all anticipated results came a sweep of such proportions and from every quarter beyond the highest claims made by the Republicans.

From pluralities ranging from 55,000 to 150,000 in the district below the Harlem for the Democratic party, the Republican party turns the city vote into 20,000 plurality for its State ticket. In all Democratic estimates given the eve of election it was contended that the Democratic plurality below the Harlem would be at least 25,000. The surprise, but an analysis shows that Senator Hill ran behind even the vote of Maynard, while in the State he fell below the vote cast for Gov. Flower in 1891.

An analysis of such figures as are obtainable to-night shows that the Republican party alone gained by the increased registration, for Mr. Morton's vote in all of the up-country districts show large gains over the Fassett vote of 1891. In the cities this same increase in registration appears to have been detrimental to the Democrats.

The vote in Albany county was one of the many surprises of the election. For years Albany county, on State or national issues, has been looked upon as a reliable Democratic stronghold, good for from 1,000 to 2,000 Democratic majority. The Democratic managers, in view of this fact and that it is also the home of Senator Hill, looked for a majority not less than 2,000.

They felt confident that Senator Hill would be given a handsome vote, as a normal Democratic majority, notwithstanding the Republican trend in other portions of the State. In fact, however, the Republican city of Albany, the natural Republican plurality was almost doubled, late figures giving Morton 4,000, where in 1891 the same county only gave 2,000 for Morton. Westchester falls into line with a big majority for Morton and Niagara county troubles its Fassett plurality.

The results of the sweeping victory are more far-reaching than simply the election of the Republican State ticket. While the returns are very incomplete on the constitutional amendments, it is highly probable, according to the first returns, that all of them are adopted, that pool-selling on races will be prohibited, and that a new judiciary system will be inaugurated. The sweep also means that for the first time in many years the Republicans will have control of the State legislature and at the same time have a Governor in the chair in political harmony with them.

The entire County of Albany, the home of Senator Hill, is Republican. Those elected are as follows: Second district, Dennis M. Hurley, Third, Edward J. O'Brien, Fourth, James B. Smith, Fifth, Charles G. Bennett, Sixth, James B. Howe.

Returns from New York city complete give Hill 125,000, Morton 125,200. Hill's plurality, 4,200.

Total vote for Mayor Grant, Democrat, 111,257; Strong, Republican, 102,691. Strong's plurality, 8,566.

John W. Goff, Independent, has been elected recorder of New York city over Frederick Smith, Tammany, by a plurality of 6,844 on the total city vote.

The following New York city Congressmen are elected:

Second district—Dennis M. Hurley, R. Third district—Edward J. O'Brien, R. Fourth district—James B. Smith, R. Fifth district—Charles G. Bennett, R. Sixth district—James B. Howe, R.

Seventh district—Isaac F. Fisher, R. Eighth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Ninth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Tenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Eleventh district—George B. McQuinn, D. Twelfth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Thirteenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Fourteenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Fifteenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Sixteenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Seventeenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Eighteenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Nineteenth district—George B. McQuinn, D. Twentieth district—George B. McQuinn, D.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Tammany is defeated. The electoral majority of 60,000 easily polled by that organization in New York city has been obliterated, and an opposition party of 40,000 to 45,000 has been piled up. Never since 1871, the year in which the Tammany machine was founded, has there been such a heavy defeat for the party. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

The result in the Second West Virginia district, Representative William L. Wilson's, still remains in doubt, the Republicans claiming his defeat, but the Democrats do not concede it. It is certain that the vote is unacceptably close. In the South the Democrats have held their own, but it appears at the time this is written that the heavy Democratic majority in the present Congress is wiped out and that the next House will be Republican.

GOVERNOR-ELECT MORTON.

several into an organization to aid in war against Tammany, and they carried the war down into the slums. They were treated respectfully, and their arguments and appeals were listened to cordially.

There seems to be no doubt that their action tended in a measure to bring about the result of today's city election. So complete is the defeat of the great political organization that its nominees for Congress are involved in the catastrophe. With the exception of one of its Congressional nominees the Tammany Congressional candidates have been defeated. Mr. Strong's plurality for mayor exceeds 43,000.

Gov. Flower's Sceptical Remark.

Gov. Flower, a notable gathering of politicians and in the chamber to-night and read the returns furnished by the Associated Press.

As has been the custom for years, the State officials gathered to-night in the executive chamber to read the returns from the various parts of the State. Senator Hill arrived at 7 o'clock, accompanied by his private secretary and Col. McIlwain. He was the first to arrive.

Gov. Flower, the Governor's private secretary, came next. Already a batch of Associated Press bulletins were on Senator Hill's desk. New York county had been sending in returns since 7 o'clock, and they were not of a most favorable nature.

At 7:30 o'clock all hope of saving the State was given up by those who had thus far arrived. Gov. Flower said that it seemed as if a great tidal wave had struck the metropolis. He did not know but it had been brought by the police investigation. He said that he felt that the vote was coming in very fast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

secretary of State, Taylor, of 125,000 to 130,000, the Democrats concede that the Republicans have made large gains over the McKinley vote of last year and possibly beaten the Democrats in the city of New York.

At 11 p. m. Chairman Dick gave out the following from Republican headquarters:

It is impossible to tell to-night whether Wilson is defeated. Democrats claim the legislature, but that is still open to question. Mr. Wilson, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Romney gives a gain for Wilson of 112, and Moorfield a gain of 40.

Further information from the country districts in Berkeley county indicates that Dayton's majority will not be over 200.

Indications all point at this hour (1 a. m.) that Dayton, Republican, is elected over W. L. Wilson by 500 plurality.

Wilson's county, Jefferson, gives him 1,040 majority, which is less than was anticipated. The election in the second district will be close, and it will require the official count to determine the result.

The Republicans are jubilant and claim Wilson's defeat.

INDIANA.

Indications Point to an Overwhelming Republican Triumph—Disputed Claims.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—Full returns from any one Congressional district have not been received here. Indications point to an overwhelming Republican triumph in the State.

The Republican State committee claims for Owens from 30,000 to 50,000 majority over his opponent, Myers, for secretary of State, thirty-two Congressmen, and both branches of the legislature.

The Democrats concede 20,000 Republican majority, but think they will have four Congressmen—Harris, in the Second, Stockinger, in the Third, Holman, in the Fourth, and McNagry in the Twelfth.

At 11 p. m. the indications at this hour are that the Republicans elect their State ticket by at least 20,000 majority.

EVANSVILLE, Nov. 6.—This city has gone Republican by a large majority.

One hundred precincts give Owen, Republican, 11,997; Myers, Democrat, 7,130. The same in 1892 gave Harrison 10,433; Cleveland, 6,800.

MARIETTA, Nov. 6.—Returns from eight out of the twelve precincts in this county show a Republican gain of 207 for State and county tickets.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 6.—The most notable feature of the election in this city to-day was the appearance of Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, a widow, who was permitted to enter the polls, and she was refused entry on the ground that she was not a citizen.

She then demanded the privilege to make an affidavit of her citizenship, which was denied her on the same ground. She was accompanied by her husband and next best friend, legal voters, who were not permitted to enter. This is a test vote for a case to be carried to the supreme court of the State, which will decide the right of women to practice law.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—President Benjamin Harrison snatched leisurely down to his voting precinct in the Second ward this afternoon, and took his place in the chute. Pending his approach to the ballot box he chatted with those around him. From his short stay in the stall the inference is drawn that he did little or no scratching.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

WILSON'S FATE IN DOUBT

The Republicans Are Confident That He Is Defeated.

DEMOCRATS DO NOT CONCEDE IT

It Will Probably Be Two or Three Days Before the Result Is Known—The Vote Is So Close That the Majority Either Way Will Be Very Narrow—Republicans Jubilant.

WHEELING, Nov. 6.—Midnight—All indications, judging from the scattered returns received from the Second district up to this hour, show the defeat of W. L. Wilson, but by what majority is the merest conjecture.

The Second district Democrats do not give up, but the drift of the returns is undoubtedly against the Democracy, and the Republicans claim the election of Dayton seems to be well founded.

Returns from one-fourth of the city and scattered figures from other points in the First Congressional district indicate the election of Capt. D. B. Romney, Republican, by not less than 2,000 majority.

Fifteen precincts of Ohio county counting about two-fifths of the vote show a Republican majority of 400. The Democratic majority in the county in 1892 was 100. From the Second district the returns are scattered and meager, but indicate a small net Republican gain.

Whether this will be sufficient to defeat Mr. Wilson is problematical, as the heavy Democratic count cannot be heard from to-night.

There has been nothing tangible, except the fact that the Republicans claim a majority of the State house of delegates.

On Tuesday, Nov. 6, The Republican State committee claim that William L. Wilson is defeated by 1,500 majority. The Democrats State committee concedes nothing.

Mr. Wilson, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Romney gives a gain for Wilson of 112, and Moorfield a gain of 40.

Further information from the country districts in Berkeley county indicates that Dayton's majority will not be over 200.

Indications all point at this hour (1 a. m.) that Dayton, Republican, is elected over W. L. Wilson by 500 plurality.

Wilson's county, Jefferson, gives him 1,040 majority, which is less than was anticipated. The election in the second district will be close, and it will require the official count to determine the result.

The Republicans are jubilant and claim Wilson's defeat.

INDIANA.

Indications Point to an Overwhelming Republican Triumph—Disputed Claims.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—Full returns from any one Congressional district have not been received here. Indications point to an overwhelming Republican triumph in the State.

The Republican State committee claims for Owens from 30,000 to 50,000 majority over his opponent, Myers, for secretary of State, thirty-two Congressmen, and both branches of the legislature.

The Democrats concede 20,000 Republican majority, but think they will have four Congressmen—Harris, in the Second, Stockinger, in the Third, Holman, in the Fourth, and McNagry in the Twelfth.

At 11 p. m. the indications at this hour are that the Republicans elect their State ticket by at least 20,000 majority.

EVANSVILLE, Nov. 6.—This city has gone Republican by a large majority.

One hundred precincts give Owen, Republican, 11,997; Myers, Democrat, 7,130. The same in 1892 gave Harrison 10,433; Cleveland, 6,800.

MARIETTA, Nov. 6.—Returns from eight out of the twelve precincts in this county show a Republican gain of 207 for State and county tickets.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 6.—The most notable feature of the election in this city to-day was the appearance of Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, a widow, who was permitted to enter the polls, and she was refused entry on the ground that she was not a citizen.

She then demanded the privilege to make an affidavit of her citizenship, which was denied her on the same ground. She was accompanied by her husband and next best friend, legal voters, who were not permitted to enter. This is a test vote for a case to be carried to the supreme court of the State, which will decide the right of women to practice law.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—President Benjamin Harrison snatched leisurely down to his voting precinct in the Second ward this afternoon, and took his place in the chute. Pending his approach to the ballot box he chatted with those around him. From his short stay in the stall the inference is drawn that he did little or no scratching.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The city has been won by the Republicans. The result is a complete and graphic story of how the battle of the ballots was fought throughout the Union.

WOMEN AT THE POLLS.

Their Presence Lends an Interest to Politics in the Silver State.

DENVER, Nov. 6.—It is safe to say that no less than half of the votes polled in this city to-day will be through women. Out of a total registry of 70,000 in Arapahoe county about 30,000 are women, and as a large number of men registered were on the books a year ago, and some have since left the city, while the female registration is all new, it is likely that more than three-fourths of the legal voters are women.

The polls opened at 7 a. m., and at that time scores of women were in line in every precinct. Hundreds of carriages were lying over the city directed by committee women, among whom are many of the most prominent society ladies of the city, gathering the voters.

It is safe to say that not one of the 70,000 women who have to-day exercised the right of franchise in Colorado has received anything but the most courteous treatment. All day long the private carriages of the Capitol Hill Society leaders have been "carrying" women voters to the polls.

In many cases the ladies owning the turnouts went with them to urge the voters to make use of their franchise. A very large majority of these, though not all, are advocates of the Republican ticket, and their energy undoubtedly made many votes for McKinley and his colleagues.

Through the influence of the organization the committee women are far more thoroughly informed as to the political preferences of the women in the city than the men managing their sex, but no doubtful voter was neglected.

Among the women who have taken an active part in the campaign and who have been prominent among the workers to-day may be named Mrs. Sue M. Hall, wife of the well known Colorado historian, Frank Hall, at present city treasurer of Denver; Mrs. David H. Mohr, wife of the president of the First National Bank, and one of the most extensive owners in the State; and Mrs. Beatrice of the ex-governor. Their homes have been repeatedly thrown open for receptions to candidates during the campaign, while their personal services were given freely to the work of spreading campaign arguments.

On Tuesday, Nov. 6, The Republican State committee claim that William L. Wilson is defeated by 1,500 majority. The Democrats State committee concedes nothing.

Mr. Wilson, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Romney gives a gain for Wilson of 112, and Moorfield a gain of 40.

Further information from the country districts in Berkeley county indicates that Dayton's majority will not be over 200.

Indications all point at this hour (1 a. m.) that Dayton, Republican, is elected over W. L. Wilson by 500 plurality.

Wilson's county, Jefferson, gives him 1,040 majority, which is less than was anticipated. The election in the second district will be close, and it will require the official count to determine the result.

The Republicans are jubilant and claim Wilson's defeat.

INDIANA.

Indications Point to an Overwhelming Republican Triumph—Disputed Claims.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—Full returns from any one Congressional district have not been received here. Indications point to an overwhelming Republican triumph in the State.

The Republican State committee claims for Owens from 30,000 to 50,000 majority over his opponent, Myers, for secretary of State, thirty-two Congressmen, and both branches of the legislature.

The Democrats concede 20,000 Republican majority, but think they will have four Congressmen—Harris, in the Second, Stockinger, in the Third, Holman, in the Fourth, and McNagry in the Twelfth.

At 11 p. m. the indications at this hour are that the Republicans elect their State ticket by at least 20,000 majority.